[Your Nonprofit Organization] Receives Grant from Junior League of Indianapolis for [Program Name]

[City] (month xx, xxxx)—[Nonprofit organization] today announced a partnership with the Junior League of Indianapolis in recognition of its efforts in [goal of nonprofit organization]. [Insert description of how the grant will be used].

[Quote from nonprofit organization]

This grant is part of the Junior League of Indianapolis' effort to support the Indianapolis community. Through the Community Assistance Grants program, the Junior League of Indianapolis awards grants to not-for-profit organizations interested in bettering the lives of women and children throughout Marion and surrounding counties. This year, the Junior League of Indianapolis awarded over $65,000 in Community Assistance Grants. The Junior League of Indianapolis strives to find community partners whose organization or programs complement the mission of the Junior League and/or share a passion for ensuring the health and wellbeing of children.

In addition to the financial support offered through the Community Assistance Grants program, the Junior League of Indianapolis serves the community by providing both trained volunteers to assist with various community projects and trained leaders to serve on community boards.
